DEJI OF AKURE LAUDS FUTA MANAGEMENT

The Management of the Federal University of Technology, Akure has been commended for making the Institution an exceptional hallmark of learning. This commendation came from the newly installed Deji of Akure, His Royal Highness (HRH), Oba Patrick Aladetoyinbo Aladelusi, and (Odundun II) when the Management of the University paid him a courtesy visit at the palace. The traditional ruler said he was enthralled by the achievements of the University, adding that his son, an alumnus of the University, is a testimony to the admirable legacies of the citadel of learning.

He gave kudos to the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola, describing him as a good and dedicated leader whose tenure is taking FUTA to places. He said “being a good leader, I enjoin you to continue in that capacity. As custodian of students, dedicated to teaching and research, the onus lies on you to give them the right direction and orientation to instill in them the expected leadership qualities for the future. I promise you the utmost support of the palace and the entire Akure people. During my tenure, I will ensure that FUTA develops further. The Palace equally needs your support as partners in progress”. Speaking earlier, the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola said the University Management came to pay homage to the Kabiyesi as the host of the University and to formally congratulate him on his installation as the new Deji of Akure land. He assured the Kabiyesi of FUTA’s continuous support to the Palace and solicited royal assistance from the Kabiyesi. Daramola said “As partners in progress, I assure you that we will always work with your majesty to further uplift FUTA and make it the University of Choice globally. All we want in your continuous support and royal blessing.”

The team led by Professor Daramola included the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), Professor Tunde Arayela, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Development), Professor Tolulope Akinbogun, the Registrar, Dr. (Mrs.) Modupe Ajayi, the Bursar, Mr. Emmanuel Oresegun, the University Librarian, Dr. Femi Oguntuase and the University’s Public Relations Officer, Mr. Adegbenro Adebajo.
