FOURSQUARE STUDENTS' FELLOWSHIP HONOURS VC

The Central Executive members of the Foursquare Students' Fellowship, Federal University of Technology, Akure have commended the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola for the peace and spiritual atmosphere pervading the University. The Executives gave the commendation while paying a courtesy visit on the Vice-Chancellor. Speaking on behalf of the team, President of the Fellowship, Mr. Bello Oluwatoyin Daniel said the Vice-Chancellor has created an enabling atmosphere for campus fellowships to thrive and this is responsible for the tranquility on the campus as the students are God-fearing and law abiding. High point of the visit was the presentation of a bi-lingual (Yoruba and English) version of the Holy Bible to the Vice-Chancellor by the students..

Responding, Professor Daramola said he was elated by the visit. He reiterated the support of Management to the spiritual and physical wellbeing of the students of the Institution. He expressed gratitude for the Bible presented to him, stating that it was the best gift any person can receive and admonished the students not to relent in being worthy ambassadors of Jesus Christ and the Institution.

The Executives led by the President, Mr. Bello Oluwatoyin Daniel included, Mr. Oyekanmi Oluwaseun (General Secretary), Miss Ogunkalu Oluwatomilola (Financial Secretary), Mr. Kolawole Timileyin Samuel (Evangelism Secretary), Mr. Olakunle Victor Taiwo (Bible Study Secretary) and Mr. Olukunle Kehinde Wisdom (Building Chairman).
