

FUTA NEWS

FUTA REWARDS EXCELLENCE, PRODUCTIVITY

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola, has called on staff and students of the University to remain faithful and committed to their duties. He made this call at the Excellence and Productivity night held on Tuesday, 17th November, 2015 as part of the activities commemorating the 27th Convocation Ceremony. The essence of the exercise was to reward members of the University Community who have gone the extra mile in the discharge of their duties and to encourage others.

At the event, Daramola said “FUTA is blessed with highly dedicated staff. 2015 has been an eventful year for us and we are grateful to God for helping us thus far. Though we had our challenges, yet God sustained us. We keep climbing the ladder upward as we are currently the 8th best in Nigeria. We plan in the coming year to be in the top 3. This is achievable through the spirit of team work that we have all demonstrated over the years. I am sure that with a little push further, we will get there”.

Appreciating the management team, staff, students and friends of the University, he said “the modest achievement we have made has been possible through our collective effort. Let’s do more in the coming year to further take FUTA to the pinnacle of success.” Staff and students numbering fifty (50) were awarded in different categories including those who projected the name of the university through winning various laurels, safeguarded lives and properties , engender peace and had served meritoriously for several years.

Responding on behalf of the awardees, Professor Samuel Ola, who won the best lecturer of the year Award said “I have served in many Universities in this country, but I can categorically say that FUTA is the best of them. I am proud to be a part of this University. A lot of us have contributed to attain this success. The Institution has produced a lot of prominent Nigerians spread across the globe. In no distance future, FUTA will be number one. On behalf of all awardees, we thank the management, staff and students for this honour”.

The colourful event was well attended by the management, staff, students and friends of the University.