FUTA is the 9th Best University in Nigeria

.....Still the Country's Best University of Technology

In the latest ranking of Nigerian Universities released by WEBOMETRICS, the Federal University of Technology, Akure, FUTA has moved from the 13th to the 9th position out of 132 institutions ranked in Nigeria by the Ranking Web of Universities. The "Webometrics Ranking of World Universities" is an initiative of the Cybermetrics Lab, a research group belonging to the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Cientificas (CSIC), the largest public research body in Spain. CSIC is among the first basic research organizations in Europe. The CSIC consisted in 2006 of 126 centers and institutes distributed throughout Spain.
