LOVE PERMEATES FUTA

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola has described the Federal University of Technology, Akure, FUTA, as a University permeated by love. Daramola, represented by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academics), Professor Tunde Arayela explained that FUTA operates in love as a family, hence its successful outlook. Daramola who received delegates from Eckankar who were at a South-West Area Seminar held at the University's main auditorium penultimate week assured the delegates of the University's cooperation and extension of love to achieve established expectations.

Receiving a donation of books, he thanked the team for choosing and identifying with FUTA, adding that the University was particular about showcasing its relevance in all walks of life.

In his speech, the Eck leader, Engr. Sixtus Abetianbe described FUTA as a great University. He explained that the seminar was a regular activity organized to help members and host communities learn to take responsibility for their actions, learn to forgive and above all show love which is the basic rationale behind the religion. Soliciting for the University's cooperation in partnership, he noted that the Eck religion has become the 3rd registered religion in Nigeria going by its recent registration exercise.

Other members of the delegation include Eck Clerics Dayo Idowu, Victoria Ikem (Mrs), Austin Ikem and Mr. Anthony Ugbomah, a member of the ECK religion.
