MANAGEMENT FELICITATES WITH NEW DEJI OF AKURE

The Management of the University has felicitated with the new Deji of Akure Kingdom, His Royal Highness, Oba Kole Patrick Aladetoyinbo.

The congratulatory letter signed by the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola to the Monarch reads:

“I write on behalf of the Federal University of Technology, Akure (FUTA) to heartily felicitate with your Royal Highness on your selection and coronation as the new Paramount Ruler and Deji of Akure Kingdom.

There is no doubt that your eventual selection and coronation is well deserved, particularly given Your Majesty’s track records of excellence, as well as your stellar attributes and sterling qualities of a respectable personage.

We are also not in any doubt that you will foster a responsive and transformational leadership on the entire Kingdom, and the Kingdom will record unprecedented legacies of peace and progress during Your Majesty’s reigns.

We therefore join your esteemed self, your family, friends and well-wishers to thank God for this attainment and to pray unto the good Lord to keep blessing you with longer life, sound health and divine protection at all times.

Please accept our expression of hearty felicitations and best wishes of resounding success on the throne.”
