

FUTA NEWS

OJOKOH ELECTED INTO TYAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Dr. (Mrs.) Bolanle Ojokoh a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Computer Science of the Federal University of Technology, Akure has been elected into the Executive Committee of The World Academy of Sciences (TWAS) Young Affiliates Network (TYAN). At the 27th General Meeting of the World Academy of Sciences (TWAS) held in Kigali, Rwanda in November 2016, The Young Affiliates/Alumni Network (TYAN) was successfully launched and election of its executive held. After the election, Ojokoh emerged one of the winners for the Sub-Sahara Africa. TWAS Executive Director , Professor Mohammed H. A. Hassan, signed the letter to announce the result of the election for Ojokoh and others from Arab region, Latin America, Sub-Sahara Africa, East/South East Asia and Central/South Asia and wish the elected the very best in their endeavours. Informing the University Management about her election, Ojokoh wrote “I hereby wish to inform the University that at the 27th TWAS General Meeting which I attended in Kigali, Rwanda, TWAS Young Affiliates Network (TYAN) was successfully launched and established. I am delighted to inform you that an election of the first Executive was also conducted at the meeting and I was elected as one of the members of the Board.” The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebiyi Daramola has congratulated Dr. (Mrs.) Ojokoh for this great feat which he said has further added value to the University. The World Academy of Science (TWAS) is a body interested in advancing Science in developing countries.