

FUTA NEWS

SPECIAL RELEASE FUTA GETS NEW BURSAR, DIRECTOR OF WORKS

The Council of the Federal University of Technology, Akure has appointed Mr. Oresegun, Emmanuel Ademola Adedeji as the Bursar and Mr. Bamisile Kehinde as the Director of Works and Services of the University.

Oresegun, a graduate of the Polytechnic, Ilaro, Ogun State, Ogun State University, Ago Iwoye, University of Ibadan and University of Agriculture, Abeokuta holds the Higher National Diploma [HND] in Business Administration, Bachelor of Science, Accounting and Master of Business Administration [MBA] certificates.

Mr. Oresegun started his working career in the Bursary Department of Ogun State University in February, 1986 as a Higher Executive Officer, Accounts. He joined the Bursary Department of the Federal College of Education Osiele, Abeokuta as a Senior Accountant in November, 1993 and rose to the position of Chief Accountant in October, 2002 before joining Adeyemi College of Education, Ondo as the Bursar between June 2006 and May 2011. He also had a brief stint with the Tai Solarin College of Education, Ijebu Ode as Acting Bursar between October 2011 and October 2012 before joining Federal College of Education, Osiele, Abeokuta again as the Bursar in June 2011. This position he held until his new appointment as the Bursar, FUTA.

Mr. Oresegun who has attended various conferences, workshops and seminars locally and internationally is an Associate member of the following professional bodies: Association of National Accountants of Nigeria [ANAN]; Nigerian Institute of Management [NIM]; Chartered Institute of Taxation of Nigeria [CITN] and the Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply Management of Nigeria [CIPSM]. He also served as member of different committees in places where he worked in the past. Born over five decades ago, Mr. Oresegun is married with children.

Mr. Bamisile is a holder of Master of Science, Civil Engineering, Postgraduate Diploma, Civil Engineering, and Bachelor of Science, Building and National Diploma, Building Technology certificates from the University of Ibadan, Ladoke Akintola University of Technology, Ogbomosho and University of Jos and the Federal Polytechnic, Ilaro respectively, Bamisile is a member of the Nigerian Society of Engineers [MNSE]; Member, Nigerian Institute of Building [MNIQB]; Registered Builder [Council of Registered Builders of Nigeria] and Registered Engineer by COREN.

Mr. Bamisile started his working career with the Federal College of Education [Special] Oyo as an Assistant Technical Officer/Technical Officer in March 1988 and rose to the position of Deputy Director, Works [Building] in October, 2009, the position he occupied until his current appointment in FUTA.

Bamisile who has attended workshops, conference and seminars within and outside Nigeria has also supervised the completion of various projects. Born over four decades ago, Mr. Bamisile is married with children.

The University Management wishes them a successful stay in Nigeria's leading University of Technology

ADEGBENRO ADEBANJO

Head, I, P & P