

FUTA NEWS

SSANUCOOP IS A SUCCESS STORY– DARAMOLA

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola has commended the Executive of the FUTA Senior Staff Multipurpose Society Limited for its leadership quality that has recorded success for the Society. He gave the commendation while declaring open the 7th Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Society ending the 2014/2015 financial year. Daramola represented by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, (Development), Professor Tolulope Akinbogun said “reviewing your activities as a Society and going through your performance with your entire asset, I make bold to say that you have a good story to tell. Looking at your achievements, I can categorically that you have dependable leadership. Ordinarily, looking at Nigeria retrospectively, most of us who ran into purchasing company shares decades ago almost regretted it but for those who have been consistent members of Cooperative Societies, they have better stories to tell. I only want to implore your leaders to continue doing their best and for members to always cooperate with them to sustain and improve on the success story”.

Commending the leadership of the society further, he said “It’s just like yesterday when we all gathered together to commission that edifice (your Secretariat). Management is very proud of your achievement. Continue to be the star among your peers. Strive to imbibe the culture of diligence, prudence and transparency”. Daramola encouraged every Senior Staff of the University to join the membership of the Society. In his address, President of the Society, Pastor Charles Adeleye commended the cooperation received from members of the Society. He said “the achievements we made in the past two years could not have been possible without your support and the contributions of our dedicated staff in the Society. We look forward to receiving further support in the coming years as we promise not to let you down. Ours is a relatively small mono-society that comprise only of Senior non-teaching staff of the University. We are very small but performing big. This we want to sustain.” Reviewing the performance of the society, he said “I am pleased to report that your Society recorded commendable growth across all financial indices during the period under review. The 2014/2015 financial year under review was very significant in the history of our Society. We continued to make laudable strides in our determination to raise the Society to enviable height”. Adeleye commended the support of all members in building a befitting Secretariat and thanked the University Management for the support received so far. “We specially thank Mr. Vice-Chancellor and his team for the physical, moral and financial support received, particularly towards the Secretariat building.

Our Vice-Chancellor, Professor Adebisi Daramola has been a pillar of support and encouragement to us. His goodwill and positive disposition propels us forward always” he added. The Director, Ondo State Cooperative Federation (OSCOFED), Mr. Braiye William commended the performance of the leadership of the Society, urging them to strive to improve. He commended the cordial relationship between the University Management and the Society, saying “it is very clear that the University Management has provided enabling environment for this Society to grow.”