THRILLS AS CLASS OF 2016 MARK ‘BACK TO SCHOOL’ DAY

As part of activities marking their pre-departure celebration, graduating students of the class of 2016, Federal University of Technology, Akure donned their old primary and secondary school uniforms to mark Back to School Day. The students during a procession round the campus sang hymns, rhymes and songs popular with primary and secondary school pupils. The procession caught the attention of passers-by who hailed and waved to them. While addressing the students, Dean, Student Affairs, Professor Kayode Alese commended them for successfully passing through the Institution and admonished them to prepare for life outside FUTA. He said FUTA has invested a lot into the students and urged them to remain good ambassadors of their Alma Mata after their departure.

At the Senate Building, the Vice-Chancellor Professor Adebisi Daramola represented by the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Development, Professor Tolulope Akinbogun congratulated the students and commended their creativity. He said the activities organized by the students will act as a therapy for their minds having undergone a lot of stress to come thus far. He said youngsters are known for vibrancy but cautioned them to be moderate while celebrating. Akinbogun advised the students to balance and manage their time in the final lap so as to finish well.
